CABLEGRAMS.

Gloomy State of Affairs in Russia—Sentenced to Death.

Port au Prince, Hayti, Fired by the Revolutionists.

Disastrous Results Anticipated From the New German Tariff.

RUSSIA.

A GLOOMY SITUATION.

London, July 7.—A correspondent at Berlin, draws a gloomy picture of the state of Russia owing to the nihilists, failure of the crops and ravages of the corn beetle. Fifty-thousand roubles have been appropriated to exterminate the beetle.

TO BE HANGED.

London, July 7.—The person who supplied the pistol to Alexander Salvieff, with which he attempted to assassinate the emperor of Russia on the 14th of April, is a physician from Weimar, Germany, who is also proved to have procured the poison with which Salvieff attempted suicide after his failure to kill the czar, and to have owned the horse by means of which the assassins of General Lesentoff attempted to escape.

A telegram from St. Petersburg authoritatively states that he has been sentenced to be hanged very shortly.

THE PANAMA CANAL.

SCHEMES OF STOCKHOLDERS.

Liverpool, July 7.—The Courier says an agreement was signed Saturday on behalf of the original promoters of the Panama Canal scheme vesting their rights in De Lesseps as representative of the future shareholders of the Inter-Oceanic Canal Company.

Subscriptions for £750,000 in 220 shares will be opened in London, Paris, Frankfurt and New York, simultaneously, in about a fortnight.

AUSTRIA.

THE CROPS.

London, July 7.—A correspondent at Ischel says a journey across three-quarters of western Austria shows the crops in upper and central Bohemia run unduly to straw in consequence of the unprecedented rain fall in the valley of the Danube. Above Linz the fields are superb, but it is feared that the continued rains will prevent successful harvesting. Anxiety also prevails throughout the east, intensified by almost daily showers.

GREAT BRITAIN.

AMERICAN CATTLE.

London, July 7.—A dispatch from Berlin, says the prospect, now regarded as certain of the early adoption of a high protective tariff, has caused the merchants to import large quantities of goods in advance, so as to escape the increased duties, hence a great falling off of trade is feared after the new tariff shall become a law.

THE WEST INDIES.

IN FLAMES.

Kingston, Jamaica, July 7.—Ad- vices from Hayti, say Port-au-Prince is in flames. Business is suspended. Blocks of buildings in ashes. Custom house is closed in consequence of the revolution.

THE EAST.

DESTROYED.

Vienna, July 7.—The walls of the fortresses at Widdin, Silistria, Rust- chuk and Varna, have been destroyed and the earthworks are left to the operations of the weather.

AFRICA.

NOT YIELDED.

London, July 7.—A long telegram from Lord Chelmsford states that King Cetewayo has not yielded to the propositions made him.

FRANCE.

INTERDICTED.

Paris, July 7.—The authorities have interdicted a great meeting at Bordeaux, Alhambra, where Blanqui was advertised to speak.

CRIME AND CASUALTY.

THE HULL MURDERER.

New York, July 7.—Judge Potter has granted a writ of habeas corpus and certiorari in the case of Chastine Cox, the confessed murderer of Mrs. Hull. The petition sets forth that Cox is unlawfully detained in the Tombs on a commitment by the coroner, and the latter has not returned the evidence upon which the prisoner is committed.

BRUTAL TREATMENT.

Bishop Seymour says the treatment he and his sister particularly received at the hands of the police after the body of his brother-in-law had been discovered in the seminary grounds, was such as would only be shown to savages. "The officers, notwithstanding my protestations that we lived on the place, insisted that we should be removed to the police station forthwith. They even refused to allow my sister to enter the house for her garments."

FIRE.

Cincinnati, July 7.—The Robertson Wagon Manufactory was partially burned this morning. Loss, $5,000. During the progress of the fire the second floor of the factory gave way precipitating six firemen to the lower floor; no serious injuries were received by any of them, however.

Norristown, N. Y., July 7.—The butter tub factory and dry house of the Norwood Lumber Company was burned to-day. Loss, $30,000; no insurance.

Heavy Failure at St. Louis.

St. Louis, July 7th.—Temple and Dirge manufacturing company, dealers in agricultural implements, have suspended. The cause is the failure of the groom shovel company, in which the house was largely interested. Creditors have been telegraphed for to come on and hold a meeting.

Marine.

New York, July 7.—Arrived, the steamship Spain from Liverpool.

Liverpool, July 7.—Arrived, the Bohemian from Boston.

Liverpool, July 7.—The steamships City of Berlin and State of Nevada from New York arrived out.

Meteorological.

Washington, July 7.—Indications: For Tennessee and the Ohio valley southerly winds, warmer or partly cloudy weather, possibly followed by cooler north west winds, and rising barometer. For the lower lake region, southwest winds and falling barometer, numerous rains and possibly local storms, followed by cooler westerly winds and clearing weather.

Wireless.

Nearly 200 delegates representing Hebrew congregations have arrived in New York to attend the union of American Hebrew congregations.

Dr. A. Clark, of Pittsburgh, died yesterday at Atlanta.

The New York Orangemen will celebrate the 12th of July by excursions and picnics.

Bishop Hendricks to-morrow celebrates at Newport the mass of requiem for the prince imperial. Col. Joseph Napoleon Bonaparte and brother of Baltimore will be present.

Morris has asked for another race with Smith, of Halifax, to take place at Pittsburgh.

New School House.

The following bids for building a new school house in district No. 4 in Adams township were opened Saturday afternoon:

Jacob Bates.....$222 00
John H. Krup.....750 00
John Thain.....850 00
A. Grothman.....700 00
Conrad Schwartz.....800 00
Cochrane & Humphrey.....800 00
F. Miller & Scheley.....712 00
J. J. Becker.....725 00

F. Miller & Scheley, being the lowest bidders, were awarded the contract.

Election of Officers.

On Saturday evening the Fort Wayne Typographical Union elected the following officers:

President—O. T. Thomas.
Vice President—Ed. Bauer.
Corresponding and Recording Secretary—John Tigar.
Financial Secretary—E. T. Oburn.
Treasurer—W. E. McDermut.
Sergeant-at-arms—C. J. Foster.
Board of Directors—Louis Handshue, R. A. Meers, Chas. Bookwalter, E. M. Lowe, W. B. McDermut.

DR. PRICE'S FLAVORING EXTRACTS.

Have grown rapidly in popularity, for, as it is known that they are natural flavors, obtained by a new process which gives the most delicate and grateful taste. We conscientiously commend Dr. Price's flavorings being all that is desired.

SEVEN UP.

That Is There Were Seven Sinners Up Before the Mayor.

Sergeant Ed. Kennedy at the Head of the Gang.

Attention battalion! Ed. Kennedy, forward march! Ed. faced about and waltzed up to the bar. He is used to this kind of business, but it is generally another kind of a bar that he patronizes, but a few weeks sojourn in this deceptive city, and he will become as familiar with the mayor's bar as any other. On Saturday Ed. was up before the same tribunal for drunkenness, but was discharged for a new trial. The trial proved disastrous for the sergeant. On Saturday he used some disrespectful language to Mrs. Wm. Shaffer, and pushed her off the sidewalk, for which disorderly conduct Ed. was arrested.

"What have you to say in extenuation?" stereotyped Clerk.

"Well, I would simply say that my heart is filled with sorrow and remorse at the waywardness of my appetite, and my conscience presses me sore."

"Well, well; that'll do. We don't want any speech here. What have you to say?"

"I desire to say that I will go home at once. I am tired and sore from reclining on the uncomfortable bunk at that obnoxious place where I was incarcerated since Saturday, and I implore you to banish me from your city. I assure you I'll never return."

The whole court was submerged in a flood of tears, and the mayor, in trembling accents, said:

"All right, my noble boy. You shall go—over the canal for twenty days."

He remarked, "I lose all," and tragically took his seat.

"Catharine Foley," warbled the marshal. And Catharine walked up like a little man.

"Catharine, you are charged in the affidavit with being drunk. Do you plead guilty or not guilty?"

"Guilty of phat?"

"Being drunk?"

"No, I was not drunk; I was seck."

"The officer says you took a glass and a silver strainer from a saloon and undertook to get away with it."

"I paid fifty cents for it. I'm going home right away."

Catharine is evidently not in her right mind. She was fined $1, judgment suspended if she left town at once.

Emeline Kanning was drunk, barefooted, afflicted, dead broke, and probably crazy. The mayor sent her out of town before any fresh calamity might befall her.

Edward Smithson was up for assault and battery. A full account of his trials and tribulations will be found elsewhere.

Arabella Young, who was sued for provocation by Simon Peters, owing to a peculiar circumstance could not appear, and her case was continued.

Ransom Young, who assaulted and tried to batter Simon, by the assistance of Abner Williams, was fined $5 and costs, while Abner was discharged.

A SAD ACCIDENT.

A Young Man Shot by a Comrade at New Haven.

A very sad affair occurred near New Haven yesterday afternoon. Two young men named C. B. Overmyer and John Foster, aged respectively 17 and 18, went swimming at the high bridge, this side of New Haven.

About 3 o'clock, they got out of the water. Foster loaded his revolver for the purpose of shooting at fish. The weapon was accidentally discharged, the ball entering Overmyer's left side about two inches below the heart. He was taken charge of by Dr. Williamson, but the wound was fatal and he breathed his last at 11 last night. The funeral took place at 3 this afternoon.

Overmyer was a stepson of Louis Certia, brother of Pete Certia of this city. Foster was arrested.

State Bill Posters' Association.

Indianapolis, July 4, 1879.—The Indiana State Bill Posters' Association met in this city to-day.

The association convened in the parlor of the Occidental Hotel at 1 o'clock p. m., President James L. West in the chair.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

A number of new bill posters were admitted.

The election of officers resulted:

James L. West, of Logansport, president.
Jessie Bartup, of Seymour, vice president.
Henry S. Mensch, of Fort Wayne, secretary.
Alexander Harbinson, of Indianapolis, treasurer.

Letters were read from bill posters recommending the establishment of bill posters in small towns.

The association was reported in a financially prosperous condition.

Thanks were extended to E. R. Egnew, proprietor of the Occidental Hotel, and Messrs. Harbinson & Abrams, bill posters, for courtesies.

The meeting adjourned to meet in Logansport in June, 1880.

THE CITY.

Judge Worden is in town. Twenty-two prisoners in jail. A much needed rain this morning. The city council meets to-morrow night. Blackberries and huckleberries are in market. J. H. Hawley has returned from Michigan. The committee on markets meets this afternoon. Election in the first ward for councilman to-morrow. The Olympic closed for the season on Saturday night. Why don't the police report the unlighted gas lamps? Stone work on the Masonic Temple will begin next week. The rope walker and aeronaut have left town. Good riddance. Mrs. Mount Hamilton and children will summer at Mackinaw. The New Haven 4th of July celebration was a grand success. The committee on public grounds and buildings meets to-morrow. The Olds factory and the Wabash shops resumed operations to-day. The SENTINEL of Saturday contained over ten columns of city news. The auditing committee for the Fourth of July will meet this evening. Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Taylor have gone to Potosky to pass the heated term. The Misses Graham, of Peru, are in the city, guests of their sister, Mrs. D. C. Fisher. The Gazette came to time this morning with a report of the Fourth of July celebration. The council should pass an ordinance to prohibit the giving of discrepitable balls. Several complaints are to be filed for the sale of liquor without license on the Fourth. There is very little excitement in the first ward over the councilmanic election to-morrow. The Fort Wayne City Band gave an open air concert at the court house park Saturday evening. G. W. Berry, formerly of this city, now of Lagrange, has been in town for the past day or two. Most of the decorations hung out for the Fourth still remain, including the arches on Calhoun street. The last performance of the Black Crook was given Saturday evening and the company left the city yesterday. A policeman informed a SENTINEL reporter last night that there are not less than fifty houses of prostitution in the city. A good suggestion is made to the effect that the pictures of the present wise council should decorate the walls of the calaboose. Nelse Stapleford is in town. He has recently transferred his services from R. & J. Cummings to Taylor Rogers & Co., of Toledo. A granger succumbed to the potent influence of the golden draughts at the apple orchard yesterday, and deposited his carcass on the banks of the raging canal, to take a sweet rest. Dr. H. B. Ayers was in town on the Fourth. He is now connected with the wholesale drug house of Meyer Bros. & Co., St. Louis. Mrs. Ayers and children are in the city and will remain several weeks. A regatta is being talked up to take place on the St. Joe River within a few weeks. It would last two or three days, and would undoubtedly prove a grand success. It is to be hoped that the affair will be encouraged. Saturday evening about 6 o'clock a rough and tumble fight took place in front of the Olympic between several of the hangers on of that establishment. There were a number of broken heads. No arrests. The democratic caucus in the first ward Saturday night unanimously nominated H. Bennington, formerly of the firm of Murray & Bennington, for councilman to succeed the late H. N. Putnam. The election will take place to-morrow. The republicans talk of nominating W. T. McKean. Whatever tends to diminish strength should be removed from the system. For those weakening diseases of babyhood—Croup, Whooping Cough, etc., use Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup, which always cures. 25 cents. Old papers for sale at the SENTINEL office.

Evidence Before the Coroner's Inquest—The Verdict.

Some Startling Revelations of Low Life in Fort Wayne.

What at first seemed to be a very mysterious murder has within the last forty-eight hours developed itself wonderfully, and now the officers think there is no doubt of the identity of the dastardly murderer of John Sheehy on the fair grounds last Friday night. This is as it should be. For a man to be murdered in a crowd of several thousand people by the light of a full moon and a dozen lamps, and in the immediate company of a number of his friends and in sight of an officer of the law, and in face of all this to have the murderer escape, leaving no clue to his identity, would be a shame and a burlesque upon our officers, and a mere farce would be all our vaunted protection and law. The crime and its details were sickening enough without adding to them the fact that the murderer will escape unscathed and unknown. John Sheehy lay dying, his lifeblood trickling away to the tune of "Old Zip Coo," saved on a wheezy old fiddle, while the jangling of beer glasses, the pattering of many feet on the dance floor, together with the obscene curses and foul language of half a hundred prostitutes and hooligans of the lowest order combined to make the scene more disgusting. But no such fine feeling as disgust was found there. An occasional "drunk again" or "What's the matter, John?" but few of all the throng thought to tender any assistance to the dying man, and scarcely any one made inquiries as to who did the bloody deed. On Saturday morning the whole affair seemed shrouded in mystery. At noon a few arrests were made, but no one felt confident that the proper parties had been found. All day long the officers of the city and county both worked with all their might—some openly to attract attention from the true point and others worked silently having their object always in sight. SWAYNE'S ARREST. Between 7 and 8 p. m. Saturday Sheriff Munson arrested Jack Swayne, who was standing at the corner of Court and Berry streets, with his brother George. When he was arrested he said he was not at Swinney Park after 6 o'clock Friday evening, and that he had not been out of town that day (Saturday). The train of circumstances which was partly unraveled Saturday seemed to indicate pretty conclusively that Emma Zink's crowd were in some way implicated in the murder. The suspected parties were shadowed all day by the officers and amateur detectives: i. e., reporters for the SENTINEL. Mrs. Emma Richards, divorced wife of George Richards, who lives at No. 75 Water street, has Emma Zink for a regular boarder, while Rebecca Weist and Rose Overly are occasionally domiciled at her place. The officers went to the house several times on Saturday and found it deserted. Saturday a SENTINEL reporter found Mrs. R., but as stated in the issue of that day, she positively refused to talk, declaring that she knew nothing whatever about the matter. About 11 o'clock Saturday night, however, she made the following statement: "On the afternoon of the 4th of July I attended the platform dance at the fair grounds, Mrs. Zink, Mrs. Overly and Mrs. Weist were with me. I came home late in the afternoon and left them there. They were pretty full at the time I left. I did not return to the fair grounds that night, but went to the dance at Lafayette Hall. I returned home about 2 a. m., and found the three women at my house in bed. I had no conversation that night with them. Saturday morning when Mrs. Overly and Emma Zink got up they danced around the floor. Mrs. Overly said 'when anybody imposes on me and my friend gives me a club I put it on them, don't I?' Mrs. Zink replied 'You bet you do.' I asked 'what's the matter with you?' She answered, 'I struck a man last night. Mrs. Weist, Em and I were introduced to a fellow named Sheehy by John Durbin and Sheehy took my sister-in-law (Mrs. Weist) out for a walk. I did not know where she had gone and I asked Em. Zink and she told me, I was on the platform, and I called Mrs. Weist, she did not answer and I went out among the trees to find her. I FOUND HER WITH SHEEHY and said 'You come back. You can't take a walk with any G-d son of a b—h.' Sheehy caught me by the arm, pulled me around and said, 'Who is a G-d son of a b—h?' I said 'You are.' He slapped at me and his fingers just grazed my cheek. I then felt something at the side of my dress. I put my hand back and got a knife and ran it in him. I got the knife from Jack Swayne. Sheehy kind of staggered back and I turned around and started for the dance with my sister-in-law. I felt something warm on my hand, looked down and found it covered with blood. I (Mrs. Richards) said to Mrs. Overly, 'Why did you get Jack Swayne in that trouble?' to which she replied, 'I am willing to take all the responsibility, and if you'll go to the fairground and tell Swayne to SEND ME IN THAT KNIFE, I'll tell them that I alone am responsible.' Thereupon Mrs. Overly, Em Zink and I started for the fairground. We went on a street car. They stayed on the outside of the fence and I went in to see Swayne. I learned that he was not on the grounds, as he had taken a horse which had run the day before to Tommy Hunt's. We then started home on a street car, and just before we got off the car the driver said to us, 'Girls, do you know that man who was stabbed with a woman, died?' To this Mrs. Overly replied, 'O God! No! Want's a brave woman?' After we left the car she said to us, 'Girls, didn't I do that sick?' Mrs. Zink replied, 'Why, you made a mistake. The driver didn't say that any woman had stabbed the man.' Mrs. Richards had fully unbosomed herself and her statement seemed to fasten the crime upon Rose Overly and Jack Swayne. The information thus conveyed to the SENTINEL reporter had been gathered by the officers and there was a lively search for the parties implicated by Mrs. Richards. The police started to search the different houses of prostitution in the city. They visited about TWENTY DENS OF INFAMY waking up and inspecting the inmates, but without finding Rose Overly or Rebecca Weist. Sheriff Munson in the meantime had "got onto" the location of these interesting ladies, and in company with Deputy Sheriff Tom Wilkinson, Constable James Wilkinson and Leonard Iba, started out for the residence of Jack Weist, a little log shanty, three miles north of the city on the Yellow River road, in Washington township. Iba accompanied the party for the purpose of identifying the women who were well known to him. A signal was arranged, and when Iba entered the house and found the girls there, he shouted (as per previous arrangement) 'Get up and get—she and her men are after you.' This was the sign for the officers to enter, and Sheriff Munson and his assistants went in to the house and placed Mrs. Overly and Mrs. Weist under arrest. Mrs. Overly WENT INTO DRUNKEN HYSTERICS at sight of the officers. She was, however, told that she might as well own up. Jack Swayne had told that she had killed Sheehy. To this she replied 'He's a G-d liar, he killed Sheehy himself.' The two women, Rose Overly and Rebecca Weist, were brought to the city, and about 2 o'clock yesterday morning the heavy iron doors of the jail closed behind them. Upon the return Emma Zink was found by Sheriff Munson, on Water street, and conveyed to jail. She was very drunk at the time she was placed under arrest. When Munson drove up to the Richards house it was 4 o'clock in the morning. He had Rose Overly and Rebecca Weist in the wagon, and he called "Em" very loudly several times. "Em" finally came to the window and Munson called to her, "Come down." "Who are you and what do you want?" asked she. "O, come down," replied the sheriff. "Rose is here and we're all going to skip." "Are you there, Rose?" asked the festive "Em." "Yes," said Rose. "All right," said "Em," and down she came. She jumped into the vehicle and asked where they were going. "To jail," said the sheriff. "Well, by G-d," was all that "Em" could say. The sheriff had made a nice piece of work of the whole job. Yesterday morning Jacob Weist, who is a brother of Mrs. Overly, came to the city and testified at the coroner's inquest that Jack Swayne visited his house on Saturday and admitted in his presence that he (Swayne) had stabbed Sheehy, and in response to a question from the coroner he said he would have come to town on Saturday and told the officers, but for the sickness of a member of his family. THEY WON'T TALK. A SENTINEL reporter visited the jail this morning and generously offered to converse with the women, but they absolutely refused to say a word. AN INTERVIEW WITH SWAYNE. A SENTINEL reporter yesterday called upon Swayne at the county jail to inquire whether or not he had anything to say, but Swayne's counsel (the Colericks) had anticipated this visit, and Jack answered the majority of the reporter's questions like a clam. "When were you arrested?" "Saturday evening." "By whom?" "By Charley." "Where you on the grounds at the time the stabbing was done?" "I don't know anything about it." "Were you drunk that day?" "That's a way I never get." "Were you out on the grounds at all that day—that is, on the Fourth?" "Course I was; you see me there; I rode a horse in the race." "Did you stay all day?" "Did I? Yes." "Were you out at the grounds when Sheehy was hurt, or where did you first find out about it?" "I don't know anything about it." "When will you have a preliminary hearing?" "I don't know." "Where are Overly, Zink, Durbin and the rest of them are; they in jail here with you?" "I don't know; didn't know they were arrested." "Well, good bye, Jack, I hope you will succeed in proving to the court that you know as little about it as you tell me." "Good bye, thank you. As will be seen from the above the reporter succeeded in drawing a great deal of valuable information out of Swayne. He learned for instance that Swayne knew nothing about the matter and further that he rode a horse in the race that day. The reporter expected that he would immediately make a full and complete confession but he didn't. Swayne appeared well at ease and was not embarrassed by the questions of the reporter in the least. THE INQUEST. Coroner Gaffney began the inquest Saturday afternoon, and concluded it last evening. Following was the evidence in full: LEONARD IBA'S TESTIMONY. I reside in Fort Wayne; I was on the fair grounds on the evening of the Fourth of July; I was on the platform dancing when the stabbing took place; I saw deceased sitting at the end of the platform beside a woman; I do not know her name, but I can identify her; I was always friendly with deceased; when I heard deceased was stabbed I went to him; I asked him who did it; he said you know the girl I was sitting with on the platform—she can tell you; I helped to place him in a buggy and sent him home; I do not know anything about the stabbing except what I have heard; I heard Rose Overly and her sister-in-law and Emma Zink say that Jack Swayne had a knife in his hand and struck at the deceased. FRANK BEAUCHA'S TESTIMONY. My name is Frank Beaucha; I reside in Fort Wayne; on the evening of the 4th of July I was at the dance on the fair grounds; I saw the deceased about a minute after he was stabbed; I did not see any one stab him; about three minutes after the man was stabbed I saw a tall man with a plug hat and linen duster show a knife on the platform to some small boys; the blade of the knife looked to be about ten inches long; the boys called him "Doc"; he acted in a strange manner; he told the boys to "keep mum about this"; he then, as I thought, put the knife in his hat and walked off the platform toward the beer stand; I told a policeman that there was a man on the platform who had a knife in his hand and I thought he was the man who stabbed deceased; the officer went to him and took hold of him and searched him, but the knife could not be found; just after I saw him with the knife I saw him change his plug hat for a hat with an old man; the man I saw with the knife was a tall slim man with a black mustache; I would recognize the man if I saw him again; I first thought he put the knife in his sleeve; he then took off his hat and turned his back and I then thought he put the knife in his hat; this was before he went to the beer stand. JACOB WEIST'S TESTIMONY. My name is Jacob Weist; I reside about three miles west of the city on the Yellow River road; I have lived in Allen county about 23 years; I know Jack Swayne by sight; Jack Swayne was at my house on the 6th of July, between 2 and 3 o'clock in the afternoon; I and my sister, Rose Overly, Emma Zink and Jack Swayne were sitting under an apple tree near my house yesterday; Jack said to the girls in my presence, "this is pretty rough"; he heard that the man was dead, and said that they must all stick together and say that they knew nothing about it at all, if they were arrested; Jack Swayne then said he stabbed the man at the fair grounds on the evening of the 4th of July, 1879, and that he had cut him enough to hurt him; he said that there was from an inch to an inch and a half of blood on the blade of the knife when he looked at it next morning; he asked me how he could get home without being seen; I told him he had better go west, as there was a piece of woods west of my house that he could go through and strike the Pittsburgh road; I saw him start west from my house; he left at 4 o'clock, as I looked at my watch; he said he wanted to be in town by 5 o'clock; I told him he could not make it by 5 o'clock; he then said he could make it by 6 o'clock; while he was at my house he saw a buggy coming; he jumped up and ran around the house and jumped over the fence in Miller's field and laid down in a fence corner; when he came back where we were sitting he said he did not want any one to see him here; Jack Swayne never was at my house before; Sheriff Munson arrested my wife and Rose Overly at 11 o'clock on the night of the 5th, at my house, and left with them at a quarter past 2; Theodore Langie brought Emma Zink into town about 7 o'clock on the evening of the 5th of July. CHARLES A. MUNSON'S TESTIMONY. My name is Charles A. Munson; I am sheriff of Allen county; I arrested Emma Zink at a house on Water street at 4 o'clock this morning, July 6th; I arrested Jack Swayne on Berry street, near the Avoline House, between 7 and 8 o'clock, on the evening of the 5th of July; I arrested Mrs. Weist and Rose Overly at Weist's house, three miles north of town at 1 o'clock this morning. LEWIS CLARK'S TESTIMONY. My name is Lewis Clark; I reside at the Eagle House in Fort Wayne; I was at the fair grounds on the Fourth of July; I had a dancing platform and bar; between 9 and 10 o'clock I learned that a man had been stabbed in the woods, and that he had been carried near my place; about half an hour before the stabbing, deceased and a woman named Weist were dancing at the end of the platform; I told them I could not make up the set, and he returned the check. They then went off the floor towards the north where the stabbing was done. The girl who was dancing with deceased was Rebecca Weist. I saw Wabash Nell follow deceased and his girl after they left the platform and heard her say that if that G-d son of a b—h goes off there to enjoy himself with that girl I will fix him. She had a good sized knife in her hand at the time. THE VERDICT. I, William Gaffney, coroner of Allen county, after hearing the evidence and examining the body, do find that the deceased, John Sheehy, came to his death by reason of a wound inflicted by a knife in the hands of one Jackson Swayne, on the night of the 4th of July, 1879, at the fair grounds, in the city of Fort Wayne. Deceased was twenty-seven years of age, of light complexion, about five feet ten inches high, and at the time of death was dressed in dark clothes. WILLIAM GAFFNEY, Coroner of Allen County. THE PRISONERS. Jack Swayne, the young man who committed the murder according to the verdict of Coroner Gaffney, is the youngest son of the late Jackson Swayne, the well known livery man. His mother, the widow Swayne, and the family are very worthy and respectable. One sister is married to a conductor on the Grand Rapids road, another to Dave Walters, and his brother George is the driver of the Alert Hawk & Ladder truck, and a most excellent young man. He is about 21 years of age, and was employed a number of years upon one of our railroads, but was discharged just after the great strike. For some time past he has been in the employ of W. H. Myers, the contractor, taking care of his horses at Swinney Park. He has always borne a good character, never having been arrested but once, which was quite recently, for violation of a city ordinance. He was sober on the night of the ball. Rose Overly alias Rose Weist is a police court celebrity of varied experience. By patient industry and steady application to business she has achieved much notoriety in her chosen profession. Her visits to the mayor have been quarterly for several years past, having at different times been arrested at the houses presided over by Kate Eckert, Mollie Nichols, Emma Zink, Lew Clark and others. She is about thirty years old and bears traces of considerable beauty, although her face is seamed with the unmistakable marks of dissipation and debauchery, and her countenance has the brazen air of the hardened prostitute. She is the wife of Tom Overly, to whom she was married a couple of years since. His reputation is also unimpaired. He spent some time prior to his marriage in jail, having been sent there for maliciously breaking down a tall gate. Rebecca Weist is a sister-in-law of Rose Overly, but is not so well known here. She and her husband, Jack Weist, formerly lived at Maples, where they left a bad record. They went from this county to Kansas but returned about a year ago. For some time past they have been living in the suburb in Washington township where the arrests were made. Mrs. Weist spent much of her time of late in the city, stopping at different houses of bad shape. She was arrested once or twice for lewdness. Her age is about thirty, and she is very repulsive in appearance. Emma Zink is well known here. She struck the turf four or five years ago, and has been making things lively ever since. She is between twenty-five and thirty years old, and was formerly very handsome. She has appeared before the mayor on divers and sundry times for prostitution and has figured in several state cases before Ryan. She was married to Robert Zink, a railroad man, several years ago, and at the present term of the superior court obtained a divorce from him. Jack Weist, who promises to figure quite prominently in the case, is Rose Overly's brother and Rebecca Weist's husband. He is a drunken cripple, and has a very bad reputation. ALTOGETHER the gang is about as depraved a one as has been brought before the public since the Dunham-Tracy crowd was on the boards. NOTES. The expense of the inquest was $23.75. Swayne's defense will probably be an alibi. Jack Swayne has retained the Colericks to defend him. The knife with which the stabbing was done has not yet been found. The grand jury will meet in special session to-morrow or next day to investigate the case. A. M. Webb was murdered on the 15th of May. Two murders in seven weeks don't speak well for Fort Wayne. John Durbin, who was arrested on Saturday and afterwards released, is a step-son of the notorious Annie Munroe. John Durbin and Bertie Wilson, who were arrested on Saturday on suspicion, were released from jail yesterday morning. A young man who knows Jack Swayne well professes to have heard him say, recently, that if ever he got down on a man he would "knife him." Miss Nora Sheehy was at Chicago, and Miss Mary Sheehy at Toledo, spending the Fourth. They are sisters of the murdered man. Both have returned home. The funeral of the murdered man took place from the Cathedral at 3 o'clock this afternoon and was largely attended. The body was interred in the Catholic cemetery. Sheriff Munson displayed his usual vigilance in the arrest of the supposed guilty parties in the late murder case. When a crime is committed he never rests until he lifts it to the bottom. He is one of the best officers Allen county ever had. Swayne's friends claim that his innocence can be easily established; that it can be proved that on the evening of the dance he was in the company of two very respectable young ladies, (Minnie Clay and Minnie Groat) at the fireworks, and was not present at all when the murder was committed. A statement was last night made to the SENTINEL reporter that about the time of the stabbing a well-known character stepped onto the dancing platform felt something warm on my hand, looked down and found it covered with blood. I (Mrs. Richards) said to Mrs. Overly, 'Why did you get Jack Swayne in that trouble?' to which she replied, 'I am willing to take all the responsibility, and if you'll go to the fairground and tell Swayne to SEND ME IN THAT KNIFE, I'll tell them that I alone am responsible.' I, William Gaffney, coroner of Allen county, after hearing the evidence and examining the body, do find that the deceased, John Sheehy, came to his death by reason of a wound inflicted by a knife in the hands of one Jackson Swayne, on the night of the 4th of July, 1879, at the fair grounds, in the city of Fort Wayne. Deceased was twenty-seven years of age, of light complexion, about five feet ten inches high, and at the time of death was dressed in dark clothes. WILLIAM GAFFNEY, Coroner of Allen County. THE PRISONERS. Jack Swayne, the young man who committed the murder according to the verdict of Coroner Gaffney, is the youngest son of the late Jackson Swayne, the well known livery man. His mother, the widow Swayne, and the family are very worthy and respectable. One sister is married to a conductor on the Grand Rapids road, another to Dave Walters, and his brother George is the driver of the Alert Hawk & Ladder truck, and a most excellent young man. He is about 21 years of age, and was employed a number of years upon one of our railroads, but was discharged just after the great strike. For some time past he has been in the employ of W. H. Myers, the contractor, taking care of his horses at Swinney Park. He has always borne a good character, never having been arrested but once, which was quite recently, for violation of a city ordinance. He was sober on the night of the ball. Rose Overly alias Rose Weist is a police court celebrity of varied experience. By patient industry and steady application to business she has achieved much notoriety in her chosen profession. Her visits to the mayor have been quarterly for several years past, having at different times been arrested at the houses presided over by Kate Eckert, Mollie Nichols, Emma Zink, Lew Clark and others. She is about thirty years old and bears traces of considerable beauty, although her face is seamed with the unmistakable marks of dissipation and debauchery, and her countenance has the brazen air of the hardened prostitute. She is the wife of Tom Overly, to whom she was married a couple of years since. His reputation is also unimpaired. He spent some time prior to his marriage in jail, having been sent there for maliciously breaking down a tall gate. Rebecca Weist is a sister-in-law of Rose Overly, but is not so well known here. She and her husband, Jack Weist, formerly lived at Maples, where they left a bad record. They went from this county to Kansas but returned about a year ago. For some time past they have been living in the suburb in Washington township where the arrests were made. Mrs. Weist spent much of her time of late in the city, stopping at different houses of bad shape. She was arrested once or twice for lewdness. Her age is about thirty, and she is very repulsive in appearance. Emma Zink is well known here. She struck the turf four or five years ago, and has been making things lively ever since. She is between twenty-five and thirty years old, and was formerly very handsome. She has appeared before the mayor on divers and sundry times for prostitution and has figured in several state cases before Ryan. She was married to Robert Zink, a railroad man, several years ago, and at the present term of the superior court obtained a divorce from him. Jack Weist, who promises to figure quite prominently in the case, is Rose Overly's brother and Rebecca Weist's husband. He is a drunken cripple, and has a very bad reputation.

Judge Worden is in town. Twenty-two prisoners in jail. A much needed rain this morning. The city council meets to-morrow night. Blackberries and huckleberries are in market. J. H. Hanley has returned from Michigan. The committee on markets meets this afternoon. Election in the first ward for councilman to-morrow. The Olympic closed for the season on Saturday night. Why don't the police report the unlighted gas lamps? Stone work on the Masonic Temple will begin next week. The rope walker and aeronaut have left town. Good riddance. Mrs. Mont. Hamilton and children will summer at Mackinaw. The New Haven 4th of July celebration was a grand success. The committee on public grounds and buildings meets to-night. The Olds factory and the Wabash shops resumed operations to-day. The SENTINEL of Saturday contained over ten columns of city news. The auditing committee for the Fourth of July will meet this evening. Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Taylor have gone to Petoskey to pass the heated term. The Misses Graham, of Peru, are in the city, guests of their sister, Mrs. D. C. Fisher. The Gazette came to time this morning with a report of the Fourth of July celebration. The council should pass an ordinance to prohibit the giving of disreputable balls. Several complaints are to be filed for the sale of liquor without license on the Fourth. There is very little excitement in the first ward over the councilman election to-morrow. The Fort Wayne City Band gave an open air concert at the court house park Saturday evening. G. W. Berry, formerly of this city, now of Lagrange, has been in town for the past day or two. Most of the decorations hung out for the Fourth still remain, including the arches on Calhoun street. The last performance of the Black Crook was given Saturday evening and the company left the city yesterday. A policeman informed a SENTINEL reporter last night that there are not less than fifty houses of prostitution in the city. A good suggestion is made to the effect that the pictures of the present vice council should decorate the walls of the calaboose. Nelse Stapleford is in town. He has recently transferred his services from R. J. Cummings to Taylor Rogers & Co., of Toledo. A granger succumbed to the potent influence of the golden draughts at the apple orchard yesterday, and deposited his carcass on the banks of the raging canal, to take a sweet rest. Dr. H. B. Ayers was in town on the Fourth. He is now connected with the wholesale drug house of Meyer Bros. & Co., St. Louis. Mrs. Ayers and children are in the city and will remain several weeks. A regatta is being talked up to take place on the St. Joe River within a few weeks. It would last two or three days, and would undoubtedly prove a grand success. It is to be hoped that the affair will be encouraged. Saturday evening about 6 o'clock a rough and tumble fight took place in front of the Olympic between several of the hangers on of that establishment. There were a number of broken heads. No arrests. The democratic caucus in the first ward Saturday night unanimously nominated H. Bennington, formerly of the firm of Murray & Bennington, for councilman to succeed the late H. N. Putnam. The election will take place to-morrow. The republicans talk of nominating W. T. McKean. Whatever tends to diminish strength should be removed from the system. ## FRIDAY'S MURDER.

The Mystery Ferreted to the Bottom.

Emma Richards Tells the Story of the Crime.

Sheriff Munson Bags Jack Swaine and Three Women.

Evidence Before the Coroner's Inquest—The Verdict.

Some Startling Revelations of Low Life in Fort Wayne.

What at first seemed to be a very mysterious murder has within the last forty-eight hours developed itself wonderfully, and now the officers think there is no doubt of the identity of the dastardly murderer of John Sheehy on the fair grounds last Friday night. This is as it should be. For a man to be murdered in a crowd of several thousand people by the light of a full moon and a dozen lamps, and in the immediate company of a number of his friends and in sight of an officer of the law, and in face of all this to have the murderer escape, leaving no clue to his identity, would be

A SHAME AND A BURLESQUE upon our officers, and a mere farce would be all our vaunted protection and law. The crime and its details were sickening enough without adding to them the fact that the murderer would escape unscathed and unknown. John Sheehy lay dying, his lifeblood trickling away to the tune of "Old Zip Coon" sawed on a wheezy old fiddle, while the jingling of beer glasses, the pattering of many feet on the dance floor, together with the obscene curses and foul language of half a hundred prostitutes and harlots of the lowest order combined to make the scene more disgusting. But no such fine feeling as disgust was found there. An occasional passer-by would ask, "Who is that?" "Drunk again?" or "What's the matter, John?" but few of all the throng thought to tender any assistance to the dying man, and scarcely any one made inquiries as to who did the bloody deed. On Saturday morning the whole affair seemed SHROUDED IN MYSTERY. At noon a few arrests were made, but no one felt confident that the proper parties had been found. All day long the officers of the city and county both worked with all their might—some openly to attract attention from the true point and others worked silently having their object always in sight.

SWAYNE'S ARREST. Between 7 and 8 p. m. Saturday Sheriff Munson arrested Jack Swaine, who was standing at the corner of Court and Berry streets, with his brother George. When he was arrested he said he was not at Swinney Park after 6 o'clock Friday evening, and that he had not been out of town that day (Saturday). The train of circumstances which was partly unraveled Saturday seemed to indicate pretty conclusively that Emma Zink's crowd were in some way implicated in the murder. The suspected parties were shadowed all day by the officers and amateur detectives: i. e., reporters for the SENTINEL. Mrs. Emma Richards, divorced wife of George Richards, who lives at No. 75 Water street, has Emma Zink for a regular boarder, while Rebecca Weist and Rose Overly are occasionally domiciled at her place. The officers went to the house several times on Saturday and found it deserted. Saturday a SENTINEL reporter found Mrs. R. but as stated in the issue of that day she positively refused to talk, declaring that she knew nothing whatever about the matter. About 11 o'clock Saturday night, however, she made the following statement:

EMMA RICHARDS'S STATEMENT. "On the afternoon of the 4th of July I attended the platform dance at the fair grounds. Mrs. Zink, Mrs. Overly and Mrs. Weist were with me. I came home late in the afternoon and left them there. They were pretty full at the time I left. I did not return to the fair grounds that night, but went to the dance at Lafayette Hall, and returned home about 2 a. m. and found the three women at my house in bed. I had no conversation that night with them. Saturday morning when Mrs. Overly and Emma Zink got up they danced around the floor. Mrs. Overly said 'when anybody imposes on me and my friend gives me a club I put it on them, don't I Em?' Mrs. Zink replied 'You bet you do.' I asked 'what's the matter with you?' She answered, 'I struck a man last night. Mrs. Weist, Em and I were introduced to a fellow named Sheehy by Johnny Durbin and Sheehy took my sister-in-law (Mrs. Weist) out for a walk. I did not know where she had gone and I asked Em. Zink and she told me, I was on the platform, and I called Mrs. Weist, she did not answer and I went out among the trees to find her.

I FOUND HER WITH SHEEHY and said 'You come back. You can't take a walk with any G-d-d son of a b-h.' Sheehy caught me by the arm, pulled me around and said, 'Who is a G-d-d son of a b-h?' I said 'You are.' He clapped at me and his fingers just grazed my cheek. I then felt something at the side of my dress. I put my hand back and got a knife and ran it in him. I got the knife from Jack Swaine. Sheehy kind of staggered back and I turned around and started for the dance with my sister-in-law. I felt something warm on my hand, looked down and found it covered with blood. I (Mrs. Richards) said to Mrs. Overly, 'Why did you get Jack Swaine in that trouble?' to which she replied, 'I am willing to take all the responsibility, and if you'll go to the fair ground and tell Swaine to SEND ME IN THAT KNIFE, I'll tell them that I alone am responsible.' Thereupon Mrs. Overly, Em. Zink and I started for the fair grounds. We went on a street car. They stayed on the outside of the fence and I went in to see Swaine. I learned that he was not on the grounds, as he had taken a horse which had run the day before to Tommy Hunt's. We then started home on a street car, and just before we got off the car the driver said to us, 'Girls, do you know that man who was stabbed with a woman's knife?' To this Mrs. Overly replied, 'O God! No! Wasn't she a brave woman?' After we left the car she said to us, 'Girls, didn't I do that sick?' It didn't embarrass me at all, did it? Mrs. Zink replied, 'Why, you made a mistake. The driver didn't say that any woman had stabbed the man.'

Mrs. Richards had fully unbosomed herself and her statement seemed to fasten the crime upon Rose Overly and Jack Swaine. The information thus conveyed to the SENTINEL reporter had been gathered by the officers and there was a lively search for the parties implicated by Mrs. Richards. The police started to search the different houses of prostitution in the city. They visited about TWENTY DENS OF INFAMY waking up and inspecting the inmates, but without finding Rose Overly or Rebecca Weist. Sheriff Munson in the meantime had "got onto" the location of these interesting ladies, and in company with Deputy Sheriff Tom Wilkinson, Constable James Wilkinson and Leonard Iba, started out for the residence of Jack Weist, a little log shanty, three miles north of the city on the Yellow River road, in Washington township. Iba accompanied the party for the purpose of identifying the women who were well known to him. A signal was arranged, and when Iba entered the house and found the girls there, he shouted (as per previous arrangement) "Get up and get—the sheriff and his men are after you." This was the sign for the officers to enter, and Sheriff Munson and his assistants went into the house and placed Mrs. Overly and Mrs. Weist under arrest. Mrs. Overly WENT INTO DRUNKEN HYSTERICS at sight of the officers. She was, however, told that she might as well own up. Jack Swaine had told that she had killed Sheehy. To this she replied 'He's a G-d-d liar, he killed Sheehy himself.' The two women, Rose Overly and Rebecca Weist, were brought to the city, and about 2 o'clock yesterday morning the heavy iron doors of the jail closed behind them.

Upon the return Emma Zink was found by Sheriff Munson, on Water street, and conveyed to jail. She was very drunk at the time she was placed under arrest. When Munson drove up to the Richards house it was 4 o'clock in the morning. He had Rose Overly and Rebecca Weist in the wagon, and he called "Em" very loudly several times. "Em" finally came to the window and Munson called to her, "Come down." "Where are you and what do you want," asked she. "O, come down," replied the sheriff. "Rose is here and we're all going to skip."

"Are you there, Rose," asked the festive "Em." "Yes," said Rose. "All right," said "Em," and down she came. She jumped into the vehicle and asked where they were going. "To jail," said the sheriff. "Well, by G-d," was all that "Em" could say.

The sheriff had made a nice piece of work of the whole job. Yesterday morning Jack Weist, who is a brother of Mrs. Overly, came to the city and testified at the coroner's inquest that Jack Swaine visited his house on Saturday and admitted in his presence that he (Swaine) had stabbed Sheehy, and in response to a question from the coroner he said he would have come to town on Saturday and told the officers, but for the sickness of a member of his family.

THEY WON'T TALK. A SENTINEL reporter visited the jail this morning and generously offered to converse with the women, but they absolutely refused to say a word.

AN INTERVIEW WITH SWAYNE. A SENTINEL reporter yesterday called upon Swaine at the county jail to inquire whether or not he had anything to say, but Swaine's counsel (the Coleicks) had anticipated this visit, and Jack answered the majority of the reporter's questions like a clam. "When were you arrested?" "Saturday evening."

"By whom?" "By whom?" "Where were you on the grounds at the time the stabbing was done?" "I don't know anything about it." "Were you drunk that day?" "That's a way I never get." "Were you out on the grounds at all that day, that is on the Fourth?" "Course I was; you see me there; I rode a horse in the race." "Did you stay all day?" "Did I? Yes."

"Were you out at the grounds when Sheehy was hurt, or where did you first find out about it?" "I don't know anything about it." "When will you have a preliminary hearing?" "I don't know."

"Where are Overly, Zink, Durbin and Weist of them are; they in jail here with you?" "I don't know; didn't know they were arrested."

"Well, good bye, Jack, I hope you will succeed in proving to the court that you know as little about it as you tell me."

"Good bye, thank you." As will be seen from the above the reporter succeeded in drawing a great deal of valuable information out of Swaine. He learned for instance that Swaine knew nothing about the matter and further that he rode a horse in the race that day. The reporter expected that he would immediately make a full and complete confession but he didn't. Swaine appeared well at ease and was not embarrassed by the questions of the reporter in the least.

THE INQUEST. Coroner Gaffney began the inquest Saturday afternoon, and concluded it last evening. Following was the evidence in full:

LEONARD IBA'S TESTIMONY. I reside in Fort Wayne; I was on the fair grounds on the evening of the Fourth of July; I was on the platform dancing when the stabbing took place; I saw deceased sitting at the end of the platform beside a woman; I do not know her name, but can identify her; I was always friendly with deceased; when I heard deceased was stabbed I went to him; I asked him who did it; he said you know the girl I was sitting with on the platform—she can tell you; I helped to place him in a buggy and sent him home; I do not know anything about the stabbing except what I have heard; I heard Rose Overly and her sister-in-law and Emma Zink say that Jack Swaine had a knife in his hand and struck at the deceased.

FRANK BEAUCHA'S TESTIMONY. My name is Frank Beaucha; I reside in Fort Wayne; on the evening of the 4th of July I was at the dance on the fair grounds; I saw the deceased about a minute after he was stabbed; I did not see any one stab him; about three minutes after the man was stabbed I saw a tall man with a plug hat and linen dusters hold a knife on the platform to some small boys; the blade of the knife looked to be about ten inches long; the boys called him "Doc"; he acted in a strange manner; he told the boys to "keep mum about this"; he then, as I thought, put the knife in his hat and walked off the platform toward the beer stand; I told a policeman that there was a man on the platform who had a knife in his hand and I thought he was the man who stabbed deceased; the officer went to him and took hold of him and searched him, but the knife could not be found; just after I saw him with the knife I saw him change his plug hat for a hat with an old man's mark; I saw with the knife was a tall slim man with a black mustache; I would recognize the man if I saw him again; I first thought he put the knife in his sleeve; he then took off his hat and turned his back and I then thought he put the knife in his hat; this was before he went to the beer stand.

JACOB WEIST'S TESTIMONY. My name is Jacob Weist; I reside about three miles west of the city on the Yellow River road; I have lived in Allen county about 23 years; I know Jack Swaine by sight; Jack Swaine was at my house on the 5th of July, between 2 and 3 o'clock in the afternoon; I and my sister, Rose Overly, Emma Zink and Jack Swaine were sitting under an apple tree near my house yesterday; Jack said to the girls in my presence, "this is pretty rough;" he heard that the man was dead, and said that they must all stick together and say that they knew nothing about it; at all, if they were arrested; Jack Swaine then said he stabbed the man at the fair grounds on the evening of the 4th of July, 1879, and that he had cut him enough to hurt him; he said that there was from an inch to an inch and a half of blood on the blade of the knife when he looked at it next morning; he asked me how he could get home without being seen; I told him he had better go west, as there was a piece of woods west of my house that he could go through and strike the Pittsburgh road; I saw him start west from my house; I left at 4 o'clock; I looked at my watch; he said he wanted to be in town by 5 o'clock; I told him he could not make it by 5 o'clock; he then said he could make it by 6 o'clock; while he was at my house he saw a buggy coming; he jumped up and ran around the house and jumped over the fence in Miller's field and laid down in a fence corner; when he came back where we were sitting he said he did not want anyone to see him here; Jack Swaine never was at my house before; Sheriff Munson arrested my wife and Rose Overly at 11 o'clock on the night of the 5th, at my house, and left with them at a quarter past 2; Theodore Lingie brought Emma Zink into town about 7 o'clock on the evening of the 5th of July.

CHARLES A. MUNSON'S TESTIMONY. My name is Charles A. Munson; I am sheriff of Allen county; I arrested Emma Zink at a house on Water street at 4 o'clock this morning, July 6th; I arrested Jack Swaine on Berry street, near the Aveline House, between 7 and 8 o'clock, on the evening of the 5th of July; I arrested Mrs. Weist and Rose Overly at Weist's house, three miles north of town at 1 o'clock this morning.

LEWIS CLARK'S TESTIMONY. My name is Lewis Clark; I reside at the Eagle House in Fort Wayne; I was at the fair grounds on the Fourth of July; I had a dancing platform and bar; between 9 and 10 o'clock I learned that a man had been stabbed in the woods, and that he had been carried near my place; about half an hour before the stabbing, deceased and a woman named Weist were dancing at the end of the platform; I told them I could not make up the set and I gave deceased his money, and he returned the check. They then went off the floor towards the north where the stabbing was done. The girl who was dancing with deceased was Rose Weist. I saw Wabash Nell follow deceased and his girl after they left the platform and heard her say that if that G-d-d son of a b-h goes off there to enjoy himself with that girl I will fix him. She had a good sized knife in her hand at the time.

THE VERDICT. I, William Gaffney, coroner of Allen county, after hearing the evidence and examining the body, do find that the deceased, John Sheehy, came to his death by reason of a wound inflicted by a knife in the hands of one Jackson Swain, on the night of the 4th of July, 1879, at the fair grounds, in the city of Fort Wayne. Deceased was twenty-seven years of age, of light complexion, about five feet ten inches high, and at the time of death was dressed in dark clothes.

WILLIAM GAFFNEY, Coroner of Allen County.

THE PRISONERS.

Jack Swaine, the young man who committed the murder according to the verdict of Coroner Gaffney, is the youngest son of the late Jackson Swaine, the well known livery man. His mother, the widow Swaine, and his family are very worthy and respectable. One sister is married to a conductor on the Grand Rapids road, another to Dave Walters, and his brother George is the driver of the Alert Hook & Ladder truck, and a most excellent young man. He is about 21 years of age, and was employed a number of years upon one of our railroads, but was discharged just after the great strike. For some time past he has been in the employ of W. H. Myers, the contractor, taking care of his horses at Swinney Park. He has always borne a good character, never having been arrested but once, which was quite recently, for violation of a city ordinance. He was sober on the night of the ball.

Rose Overly alias Rose Weist is a police court celebrity of varied experience. By patient industry and steady application to business she has achieved much notoriety in her chosen profession. Her visits to the mayor have been quarterly for several years past, having at different times been arrested at the houses presided over by Kate Eckert, Mollie Nichols, Emma Zink, Lew Clark and others. She is about thirty years old and bears traces of considerable beauty, although her face is seamed with the unmistakable marks of dissipation and debauchery, and her countenance has the brazen air of the hardened prostitute. She is the wife of Tom Overly, to whom she was married a couple of years since. His reputation is also unfragrant. He spent some time prior to his marriage in jail, having been sent there for maliciously breaking down a tail gate.

Rebecca Weist is a sister-in-law of Rose Overly, but is not so well known here. She and her husband, Jack Weist, formerly lived at Maples, where they left a bad record. They went from this county to Kansas but returned about a year ago. For some time past they have been living in the hut in Washington township where the arrests were made. Mrs. Weist spent much of her time of late in the city, stopping at different houses of bad shape. She was arrested once or twice for lewdness. Her age is about thirty, and she is very repulsive in appearance.

Emma Zink is well known here. She struck the turf four or five years ago, and has been making things lively ever since. She is between twenty-five and thirty years old, and was formerly very handsome. She has appeared before the mayor on divers and sundry times for prostitution and has figured in several state cases before Ryan. She was married to Robert Zink, a railroad man, several years ago, and at the present term of the superior court obtained a divorce from him.

John Weist, who promises to figure quite prominently in the case, is Rose Overly's brother and Rebecca Weist's husband. He is a drunken cripple, and has a very bad reputation.

Altogether the gang is about as depraved a one as has been brought before the public since the Dunlun- Tracy crowd was on the boards.

NOTES. The expense of the inquest was $23.75. Swaine's defense will probably be an alibi.

Jack Swaine has retained the Coleicks to defend him.

The knife with which the stabbing was done has not yet been found.

The grand jury will meet in special session to-morrow or next day to investigate the case.

A. M. Webb was murdered on the 15th of May. Two murders in seven weeks don't speak well for Fort Wayne.

John Durbin, who was arrested on Saturday and afterwards released, is a step-son of the notorious Annie Munroe.

John Durbin and Bertie Wilson, who were arrested on Saturday on suspicion, were released from jail yesterday morning.

A young man who knows Jack Swaine well professes to have heard him say, recently, that if ever he got down on a man he would "knife him."

Miss Nera Sheehy was at Chicago, and Miss Mary Sheehy at Toledo, spending the Fourth. They are sisters of the murdered man. Both have returned home.

The funeral of the murdered man took place from the Cathedral at 3 o'clock this afternoon and was largely attended. The body was interred in the Catholic Cemetery.

Sheriff Munson displayed his usual vigilance in the arrest of the supposed guilty parties in the late murder case. When a crime is committed he never rests until he sifts it to the bottom. He is one of the best officers Allen county ever had.

Swaine's friends claim that his innocence can be easily established; that it can be proved that on the evening of the dance he was in the company of two very respectable young ladies, (Minnie Clay and Minnie Grout) at the fireworks, and was not present at all when the murder was committed.

A statement was last night made to a SENTINEL reporter that about the time of the stabbing a well-known character stepped onto the dancing platform in a high state of excitement and said something to Lew Clark in a hurried way, to the effect that he had done something. Clark responded, "G-d-d n you, skip," and pushed him away. The man then ran through the crowd and disappeared. His name is known to the party who made this statement to our reporter.

The Gazette of this morning does Sheriff Munson a great injustice in saying that Iba furnished him with the points to work up the Sheehy murder case. Iba was interviewed by all the officers and stated uniformly that he knew nothing about the case, that he introduced a great many parties that day but knew nothing of it whatever. Charlie worked up the case from an entirely different standpoint.

Mrs. May McGowan

The Original and Leading HAIR DRESSER AND PRACTICAL WIG MAKER OF Fort Wayne.

The attention of the ladies of Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana is called to the fact that Mrs. May McGowan, at the Old S. A. N. O. No. 23, East Main Street, has just received from Europe the latest and most improved styles of hair, and is still outstripping all who would be rivals. She does not overdo her work, but gives the most perfect and beautiful results. She does not copy from other styles, but creates her own. She does not use "Sarsaparilla," "Frisette," and other novelties of hair, but uses the only person in the city. She does not use any of the "Sarsaparilla," "Frisette," and other novelties of hair, but uses the only person in the city. ## THE "CONQUERING HEROW."

Fred. Boltz Returns From Toledo with His Trophies.

A Grand Reception--The Races
and the Prizes.

Fred Boltz arrived home from Toledo on Saturday evening at 8.30 bringing with him both the junior and senior single scull badges awarded by the N. W. A. R. A., at Toledo on Saturday.

In the senior single race on Friday,
there were only three to start, the water being rough at times. Nadeau refused to start. The starters were Boltz, and Kelly, and Ball of Jettroit. Wells stopped three times to bail out the water from his shell.
Boltz won in 19.48; Wells in 20.10,
and Kelly a bad third.

In the junior single race, on Saturday, there were also three starters-- Wolf of Hillsdale, Ball of Detroit, and Boltz of this city.

Wolf pulled within about 20 rods of the turning stake, when he gave up the contest and paddled back to the boat house.

Ball and Boltz pulled along steadily
as possible, owing to the rough condition of the water, and turned the stake almost together. Ball was thrown out of the race by having his shell sink, and Boltz pulled down evenly, winning the race in 21 minutes.

Boltz, as stated, arrived on the 8.20 train on Saturday evening, and was met at the depot by the City Band and a large party of his friends who escorted him to a carriage in waiting and conveyed him to the Occidentals. He exhibited the badges. They are very pretty and unique designs, being the most costly ever presented for a similar match. The senior single badge is composed of a solid gold bar on which is engraved "Senior Single Sculls," surmounted by a sea shell enclosing a trident from which is suspended, by a golden cable a heavy circle of gold behind which appears a pair of crossed sculls. The circle is crossed by a heavy gold bar bearing the letters N.

W. A. R. A. in raised letters and on the lower part an engraving of a single scull rower in his shell. The circle also bears the date 1879.

The junior single badge is a bar
bearing in raised characters the letters
"N. W. A. R. A." Suspended therefrom is a heavy gold circle, on which is engraved "Junior Single Sculls." In the centre of the badge is a wreath enclosing the date 1879, and the whole rests on a pair of crossed oars. The badges are both very pretty, and Fred feels justly proud over their possession.

BREVITIES.
Mrs. Sol. D. Bayless is very ill.
Ice is selling at 35 cents per hundred.

Mrs. Rev. Lathrop is stopping at the Avaline.

Christian Parker, of St. Joe township, is very ill.

M. Baltes has gone to Chester, Ills.

Farmers in this vicinity expect to finish cutting wheat this week.

A wheel was taken off of Charley Taylor's buggy, in front of the Ave-line House, Saturday afternoon.

John Beck has returned from the Toledo regatta.

The railroad men will excurt to Rome City on the 22d.

The fence around the court house
has been repainted.

The telephone wires continue to send in the false alarms with unabated fervor.

The council will, to-morrow night,
open proposals for sidewalks on Wayne, Clark and Putnam streets.

The parties who had the old grand stand at Swinney Park, on Friday, dropped about $40.

Louis Becker who was shot at Sheldon on Thursday night, has recovered so far as to be able to resume his duties in his store.

The City Band gave another grand concert at Mad Anthony Park yesterday afternoon. The crowd was neither large, thirty nor enthusiastic.

Nothing has yet been heard of Mur-man, the notorious Toledo barber who skipped so suddenly last week.

Dr. Reed, the Roanoke body snatch-er, who is now in the city, got out of his recent scrape by paying fine and costs amounting to $150.

The SENTINEL of Saturday evening contained twenty-eight columns of reading matter--more than was ever published before in a single issue of a Fort Wayne daily paper. All of this cost each subscriber less than one cent.

On Saturday, Courad Wiehling, a laborer living on Broadway, was engaged in doing some work on a new building being erected by William C.
Covert, on West Washington street,
and when on the second story scaffold lost his footing and fell to the ground, sustaining some very painful but not serious injuries. He was taken to his home and properly cared for.

A party of boaters, including several ladies, took a pleasant little excursion up the St. Joe River last night.

P. S. O'Rourke and family leave for Petoskey on Wednesday.

The Home billiard hall has been ornamented by two very fine half length oil portraits of the proprietors, Jay Phillips and John McCain. They
are gems in workmanship and price.
They were the work of Colcord, the portrait painter.

urday.

Prof. Heath has returned from Cincinnati.

The police look well in their new
hats.

The Anthony Wayne steamer is expected home in about two weeks.

The wife of Engineer Piercetson, of
No. 208 on the Pittsburgh, has gone to Chicago on a two weeks visit.

W. R. Ford, of the Fort-Wayne Seed Store, has gone to Minnesota on a two months visit.

A spicy letter from our New Haven correspondent is unavoidably crowded out until to-morrow.

T. C. Mays was in the city yesterday, en route from St. Louis, his present abiding place, to Auburn.

Miss Kittie Winslow, of Valparaiso, was visiting friends in this city on Friday and Saturday last.

J. D. Cook, of Toledo has arrived with his report which will be presented to the council to-morrow night.

It is alleged that Joseph Blakely, a young man living near Hoagland, last

Ills. last night, to work at his trade in the Vandalia shops.

Miss Daniels, who has been visiting Mrs. Lavin Smith, left for her home last night.

Mrs. Dalzell leaves for Cleveland to-morrow morning to attend the wedding of A. W. Allen and Clara Neid-linger.

J. B. Sprague has resigned his position as agent of the Howe Machine Co. in this city. No agent has as yet been appointed in his place.

A new patient, from Antwerp, O.,
was admitted into the City Hospital on Saturday. He is suffering from a chronic disease.

J. L. McCrory, late short-hand reporter in the United States senate, who has been visiting friends in the city for the past few days, left for his home in Iowa to-day.

John Lechner has received his prize money from the Chicago schutzenfest, the amount being $23.20.
John made 116 bullseyes at 200 yards. The bullseyes were four inches square. The shooting was remarkably good.

Phil Michaels, living two miles east of the city lost a very fine four-year-old colt yesterday. The animal undertook to jump a picket fence and
became impaled on one of the pickets, and had to be killed shortly afterwards.

About 9:30 last evening the wind blew a perfect gale for a short time,
and there was general fear of a hurricane similar to that which recently swept over Minnesota and Wisconsin.
Several signs and trees were blown down, but no serious damage done.
The wind went down as suddenly as it came up.

On Saturday evening John Dick and W. Wanner became involved in a fight in Corn's saloon on Broadway.
The latter threw Dick out of the window, when he in turn was dragged out, both fell into the cellar and were badly bruised. No arrests.

Yesterday afternoon, in accordance with instructions and description by telegraph, the marshal arrested Frank Roberts, of Delphos, said to be wanted at that place for assault and battery with intent to kill. He proved that he was not the man wanted and was released.

H. Benningen, the democratic nominee for councilman in the first ward,
is a worthy man and a good citizen and should be elected.

George Morgan, the Burlager robber, was brought into the criminal court this afternoon, and pleaded guilty. Sentence was deferred.

Rev. C. C. Tate sermonized in the Trinity Church yesterday to a large and appreciative audience.

No action has yet been taken in the Kanning case, in which Prosecutor
Hench filed information.

The pall bearers at John Sheehy's funeral this afternoon, were John Meeley, Jerry Meeley, Patrick Owens,
Michael Nelligan, John H. Connors
and James Quillinan.

A number of the city officers and councilmen, under charge of Supt.
Worthington went to Muncie on Saturday to see about making arrangements to procure gravel for the city streets of the Muncie Railroad Company. From there they went to Cincinnati and will return to-night.

Emma Johnson died at 11 o'clock this morning. Funeral this afternoon.

Lulu Stoner, Augusta Reitz, Martha
E. Wohlfort, Celia Grosjean, Lillie B.
Shugarts, J. E. Felte, H. Wilke, W.
J. Bowman, W. G. Alexander, A. W.
Baker, Samuel N. Walters, Julia Heller, Sam Stophlet. Of the above four received "A" grade, seven "B" grade, and six "C" grade. All applicants falling below a general average of 75 percent were rejected. Total number examined forty-one.

The building committee of the Masonic Temple Association met Saturday afternoon and decided to use North Vernon stone for the footings, Stony Point for the foundations
and main wall, and Joliet for the trimmings. The grade of the sidewalk is to be raised eight inches. It was also decided to employ a local superintendent to be constantly on the ground.

ON THE TRAIL.

Her Husband and His
"Sister."

She Comes to Fort Wayne and Makes a Lively
Breeze.

How He "Left Her with a Dead Child in Her Arms."

A Decidedly Interesting Story.

The following special from Crawfordsville to the Indianapolis Journal of July 3d, was furnished a sequel in this city yesterday:

Dr. Edward A. Smithson, a herb
and root doctor claiming his residence in Indianapolis, has been selling his medicines on our streets for a few days, having for a companion a young woman whom he claimed was his sister. Yesterday evening a woman claiming to be his wife put in an appearance and proceeded to make trouble for the doctor, winding up in a free fight, which ended in the medicine man being arrested on a charge of assault and battery and fined. Later in the day the doctor and his "sister" gave the wife the slip and got out of the city.

A few days ago a gentleman and
lady arrived in this city and registered at the Avenue House as "Dr. Ball and sister." They were given apartments, and the Dr. at once went out on the street and desecrated to our citizens upon the

GREAT AND WONDERFUL DISCOVERY
of which he had the sole possession but which he could be induced to part with for the ridiculously low figure of 50 cents. The doctor (?) drove a thriving trade, and the half dollars rolled into his valise with pleasing regularity. His beautiful (?) sister in the meanwhile awaited his return and entertained him pleasantly after his daily labors were completed. Nothing occurred to check the doctor's steady and onward roll to affluence and riches, and on the Fourth his thrilling tones could be heard on the fair grounds as he enlightened his listeners on the only sure and safe road to health and longevity, ever and anon smiling serenely as the familiar click of the half dollar told him that

ANOTHER VICTIM
had made a deposit. Yesterday morning, however, a cloud appeared upon the doctor's horizon. The cloud was not
"at first not more than the size of a hand."

Not much. It was a full blown cloud, weighing about 125 pounds,
and was enveloped in a black alpaca dress and a crane veil. The cloud was of the variety not found in meteorological nomenclature, but was of the Mrs. E. A. Smith variety, which is the short of the Crawfordville E. A. Smithson, and the long of Dr. Ball. Mrs. Smith was in search of her recalcitrant husband who she says deserted her with a

DEAD CHILD IN HER ARMS,
at Terre Haute a few weeks ago, and
left her without means or sustenance.
The sister above mentioned is merely a sister, as it were, and according to Mrs. S.'s statement, the pseudo doctor picked her out of one of the lowest dives in Terre Haute. There is certainly nothing in her appearance which would attract the admiration of any sensible man, and if the doctor (?) found any attractions there they must certainly be hidden.

Upon her arrival Mrs. Smith sought the aid of the city marshal and the prosecuting attorney to file an affidavit against Mr. Ball alias Smithson alias Smith for desertion.

Prosecutor Hench could not see it in that way. She then sought a justice to file an affidavit herself, but that also was a failure. In the meantime the doctor had sworn out a statement
to have her arrested and put under bonds for surety of the peace.

The papers, however, were not served. Finding all efforts vain to reach her husband by means of the law, she tried another method, and dispatched Deputy Guthermuth with a note, to interview the gentleman.
This scheme was a success as far as it went, but it only went

FIVE DOLLARS WORTH.
The doctor gave Ben five dollars to buy Mrs. Smith a ticket for Chicago, and said that would be the entire and total extent of his generosity. He said Mrs. Smith had disgraced him, that she had left him and gone into a waiter girl saloon in Indianapolis and had fired beer and other refreshments around among the boys, and that he could never see her nor do anything for her again.

A SENTINEL reporter last evening
interviewed Mrs. Smith, when the following conversation took place:

"Have you seen your husband?"
"Yes, I have seen him, and I hope for the last time."

"What did he have to say?"
"Well, he finally came to me, and we walked up the street. He abused me all the way, and we got around the corner--I don't know the name of the street--where no one was looking, and he choked me and pinched me until my sides are all black and blue, and he told me I had better go away and
leave him and

"NEVER BOTHER HIM AGAIN."
"I raised my parasol to hit him, but I did not strike."

"Will you go to Chicago, to-night?"
"I think I shall; I think it is best."

"He said you were a disreputable woman, or that you led a disreputable life? Is that a fact?"

"No sir! It is not. I acknowledge that I was in a saloon in Indianapolis, but I was earning an honest living,
which I had to do to live at all."

"Will you ever bother him again?"
"If No, never. I buried him where I buried my little babe. He is dead to me henceforth. I can live and prosper under it, but he will find the bitter end soon enough. Mark my words, that man will yet inside of one year come to me on his two bended knees and beg of me for a drink of water, but I will have none for him. Mark it, I say before one year."

THATS FILLED HIS EYES
as he thought of the pitiful spectacle
of a man begging for a drink of water when whiskey is only 40 cents a gallon and beer retails at two glasses for five cents. The reporter recovered far enough to inquire "Is he a doctor?"

"Hut no. He don't know any more about medicine than I do."

"How were you treated by the officers here?"

"By some, very well. If this man (Guthermuth), and the young man (Falkner) and the man they call captain (Diehl) had been my own brothers they could not have treated me any better. But the prosecutor and justice some how didn't seem to care much about it, and I will not bother
these men anymore."

There may be another phase in the story which the reporter did not get
"onto."

Since writing the above the parties have had a new deal. Mrs. Smith did not go to Chicago last night, but she went to the mayor's court this morning and filed an affidavit against the doctor for assault and battery as above described. Her statement was merely a corroboration of the story as related.

The doctor said she was not his wife, but a woman who was gone on him and was following him for blackmail. He says he had her imprisoned at Milwaukee a year ago.
He said he was willing to pay for a discharge to Galveston, Tex., where she claimed to have married him, and
by it disprove her statement.

The doctor got considerably "rattled," and his statement wouldn't hold water; he was fined $1 and costs, which he paid and immediately had
Mrs. Smith arrested for provoke. Her trial was held by Justice Ryan, and resulted in the dismissal of the case.

Details of Israel Young's Accident at Toledo.

The Funeral at that City Yesterday Afternoon.

The Toledo Commercial of Saturday
gives the full details of the death of Israel P. Young, switchman in the yards at that place. The accident was a most shocking one, the body being horribly mangled, and yet the unfortunate man lived about ten or fifteen minutes after being run over. No one knows exactly how the accident occurred. Young was standing on the rear end of a train from which he had just cut loose a car. He gave the engineer the signal to stop, when the engineer reversed the engine, and it is probable that the sudden stopping and jolting of the train threw Young off his balance, and he fell, two cars and part of the third passing over him.

The Commercial says: "Both legs were crushed and broken, and the right arm was also crushed. The face was badly scratched, and there were severe injuries about the body. Men who helped get the body out from under the cars say that he lived but a few minutes, but during that time he must have suffered fearfully."

He had been to work in the yard
about six months, and was supposed to know his business.

The coroner's verdict was accidental death. No blame to be attached to any one.

Yesterday morning S. B. Sweet,
John Wells, Chas. Buck, James Keegan, Chas. Lape, James Goodrich, George Heberston, John Humphrey and Casper Smith went to Toledo and attended the funeral, which was held yesterday afternoon from the Broadway Methodist Episcopal Church, under the auspices of the Masons. John Humphrey, Casper Smith and Len Thomas of the Wayne lodge were among the pall bearers, the other three being members of the Toledo lodge No. 144. The Port Wayne men who attended the funeral returned home at 8:35 last evening.

The Standard Club.
Yesterday afternoon a number of leading Jewish citizens met and organized a club for the purposes of social intercourse, literary entertainments, lectures, etc., etc. The club will be known as the Standard Club,
and starts out with thirty-five members. Rooms have been rented in Foster Brothers new block, which will be fitted out in fine style. The officers are as follows:

President--L. Lauferty.
Vice President--E. Goldsmith.
Secretary--L. Egan.
Treasurer--L. Freiburger.

Robert Hervey, the prisoner who assaulted Dick Meyer last Saturday,
was placed in solitary confinement.
Hervey thought he would get even, so he filled the lock with paper, etc., so that the door could not be unlocked.
The sheriff was obliged to break the lock in order to get him out of his cell.
He has not yet had his preliminary examination.

The social to be given by the Third Street M. E. Church will be held next Thursday evening at Bullard's Ice Cream Restaurant, on Wells street.
All are cordially invited.

Mr. McCongale, publisher and editor of the Decatur Democrat, who not long ago came here to consult Dr.
Von Moschizker, has in his paper of July 4th the following notice:

"Having been suffering severely for several weeks with a pain in the head, we this week called on Dr. Von Moschizker, the noted specialist of Philadelphia, but who is now stopping in Fort Wayne. He has so far received considerable benefit from his treatment and have every reason to believe that he can soon effect a permanent cure."

THE "CONQUERING HEROW."

ledo with His Trophies.

A Grand Reception--The Races
and the Prizes.

Fred Boltz arrived home from Toledo on Saturday evening at 8.30
bringing with him both the junior and
senior single scull badges awarded by
the N. W. A. R. A., at Toledo on Saturday.

In the senior single race on Friday,
there were only three to start, the
water being rough at times. Nadeau refused to start. The starters were Boltz, and Kelly, and Ball of Detroit. Wells stopped three times to bail out the water from his shell.
and Kelly a bad third.

In the junior single race, on Saturday, there were also three starters-- Wolf of Hillsdale, Ball of Detroit,
and Boltz of this city.

Wolf pulled within about 20 rods
of the turning stake, when he gave
up the contest and paddled back to
the boat house.

Ball and Boltz pulled along steadily
as possible, owing to the rough condi-
thrown out of the race by having his
shell sink, and Boltz pulled down
evenly, winning the race in 21 minutes.

Boltz, as stated, arrived on the 8.20 train on Saturday evening, and was met at the depot by his friends who escorted him to a carriage in waiting and conveyed him to the Occidentals where Fred. exhibited the badges.

They are very pretty and unique besides being the most costly ever presented for a similar
is engraved "Senior Single Sculls,"
surmounted by a sea shell enclosing a trident from which is suspended, by a golden cable a heavy circlet of gold behind which appears a pair of crossed sculls. The circlet is crossed by a heavy gold bar bearing the letters N.
W. A. R. A. in raised letters and on the lower part an engraving of a single scull rower in his shell. The circlet also bears the date 1879.

The junior single badge is a bar
"N. W. A. R. A." Suspended therefrom is a heavy gold circlet, on which is engraved "Junior Single Sculls." In the center of the badge is a wreath enclosing the date 1879, and the whole
rests on a pair of crossed oars. The badges are both very pretty, and Fred
feels justly proud over their possession.

BREVITIES.

Mrs. Sol. D. Bayless is very ill.
Ice is selling at 35 cents per hundred.

Mrs. Rev. Lathrop is stopping at the Aveline.

Christian Parker, of St. Joe township, is very ill.

M. Bales has gone to Chester, Ills.
Farmers in this vicinity expect to
finish cutting wheat this week.

A wheel was taken off of Charley Taylor's buggy, in front of the Aveline House, Saturday afternoon.

John Beck has returned from the
Toledo regatta.

The railroad men will excurt to Rome City on the 22d.

The fence around the court house
has been repainted.

The telephone wires continue to
send in the false alarms with unabated
fervor.

The council will, to-morrow night,
Wayne, Clark and Putnam streets.

The parties who had the old grand
dropped about $40.

Louis Becker who was shot at Sheldon on Thursday night, has recovered
so far as to be able to resume his duties in his store.

The City Band gave another grand
concert at Mad Anthony Park yesterday afternoon. The crowd was neither large, thirsty nor enthusiastic.

Nothing has yet been heard of Mur-
man, the notorious Toledo barber who
skipped so suddenly last week.

Dr. Reed, the Roanoke body snatcher, who is now in the city, got out of his recent scrape by paying fine and

The SENTINEL of Saturday evening
contained twenty-eight columns of
published before in a single issue of a
cost each subscriber less than one
cent.

On Saturday, Conrad Wiebking, a laborer living on Broadway, was engaged in doing some work on a new building being erected by William C.
Covert, on West Washington street,
and when on the second story scaffold
lost his footing and fell to the ground,
home and properly cared for.

A party of boaters, including several ladies, took a pleasant little excursion up the St. Joe River last night.

P. S. O'Rourke and family leave for Petoskey on Wednesday.

The Home billiard hall has been
ornamented by two very fine half
Jay Phillips and John McCain. They
are gems in workmanship and price.
portrait painter.

urday.

Prof. Heath has returned from Cincinnati.

hats.

The Anthony Wayne steamer is ex-

The wife of Engineer Piercetson, of
No. 208 on the Pittsburgh, has gone to Chicago on a two weeks visit.

W. R. Ford, of the Fort-Wayne Seed Store, has gone to Minnesota on a two months visit.

correspondent is unavoidably crowded
out until to-morrow.

T. C. Mays was in the city yester-

was visiting friends in this city on Friday and Saturday last.

J. D. Cook, of Toledo has arrived with his report which will be presented to the council to-morrow night.

It is alleged that Joseph Blakey, a young man living near Hoagland, last

Ills., last night, to work at his trade
in the Vandalia shops.

Mrs. Lorin Smith, left for her home last night.

Mrs. Daltzell leaves for Cleveland to-morrow morning to attend the wedding of A. W. Allen and Clara Neid-
linger.

J. B. Sprague has resigned his position as agent of the Howe Machine Co. in this city. No agent has yet been appointed in his place.

A new patient, from Antwerp, O.,
was admitted into the City Hospital
on Saturday. He is suffering from a chronic disease.

J. L. McCreery, late short-hand reporter in the United States senate,
city for the past few days, left for his home in Iowa to-day.

John Leichter has received his prize money from the Chicago schutz-fest, the amount being $23.20. John made 116 bulls-eyes at 200 yards. The bulls-eyes were four inches square. The shooting was remarkably good.

Phil Michaels, living two miles east of the city lost a very fine four-year-old colt yesterday. The animal un-
became impaled on one of the pickets,
and had to be killed shortly afterwards.

About 9.30 last evening the wind
blew a perfect gale for a short time,
and there was general fear of a hurricane similar to that which recently
swept over Minnesota and Wisconsin.
Several signs and trees were blown
down, but no serious damage done.
The wind went down as suddenly as it
came up.

On Saturday evening John Dick and W. Warner became involved in a fight in Corn's saloon on Broadway.
The latter threw Dick out of the window, when he in turn was dragged
out, both fell into the cellar and were badly bruised. No arrests.

Yesterday afternoon, in accordance
telegraph, the marshal arrested Frank Roberts, of Delphos, said to be wanted
at that place for assault and battery
with intent to kill. He proved that he was not the man wanted and was released.

H. Benningen, the democratic nominee for councilman in the first ward,
is a worthy man and a good citizen

George Morgan, the Burlager robber, was brought into the criminal court this afternoon, and pleaded guilty. Sentence was deferred.

Rev. C. C. Tate sermonized in the Trinity Church yesterday to a large
and appreciative audience.

Kanning case, in which Prosecutor
Hench filed information.

The pall bearers at John Sheehy's
funeral this afternoon, were John Meeley, Jerry Meeley, Patrick Owens,
Michael Nelligan, John H. Connors
and James Quillinan.

A number of the city officers and
councilmen, under charge of Supt.
Worthington went to Muncie on Saturday to see about making arrangements to procure gravel for the city
streets of the Muncie Railroad Company. From there they went to Cincinnati and will return to-night.

Emma Johnson died at 11 o'clock
this morning. Funeral this afternoon.

The following persons have been licensed by Supt. Hillegass to teach:
M. A. Snider, Cassie McNair, Sarah L. Hedge, Elsie A. Karigan, Lulu Stoper, Augusta Reitze, Martha
E. Wohlfort, Celia Grosjean, Lillie B.
Shugarts, J. E. Felts, H. Wilke, W.
J. Bowman, W. G. Alexander, A. W.
Baker, Samuel N. Walters, Julia Heller, Sam Stophlet. Of the above four received "A" grade, seven "B" grade,
and six "C" grade. All applicants falling below a general average of 75 percent were rejected. Total number examined forty-one.

Masonic Temple Association met
Saturday afternoon and decided to use North Vernon stone for the foot-
and main wall, and Joliet for the
trimmings. The grade of the sidewalk is to be raised eight inches. It was also decided to employ a local superintendent to be constantly on
the ground.

ON THE TRAIL.

Her Husband and His
"Sister."

She Comes to Fort Wayne
and Makes a Lively
Breeze.

How He "Left Her with a Dead Child in Her Arms."

A Decidedly Interesting Story.

The following special from Craw-
fordsville to the Indianapolis Journal
of July 8d, was furnished a sequel in this city yesterday:

Dr. Edward A. Smithson, a herb
and root doctor claiming his residence
in Indianapolis, has been selling his
medicines on our streets for a few days, having for a companion a young woman whom he claimed was his sister. Yesterday evening a woman claiming to be his wife put in an appearance and proceeded to make
trouble for the doctor, winding up in
a free fight, which ended in the medicine man being arrested on a charge of assault and battery and fined. Later in the day the doctor and his "sister"
gave the wife the slip and got out of
the city.

lady arrived in this city and registered
at the Avenue House as "Dr. Ball and sister." They were given apartments, and the Dr. and once went out on the street and decanted to our

of which he had the sole possession but which he could be induced to part with for the ridiculously low figure of 50 cents. The doctor (?) drove a thriving trade, and
the half dollars rolled into his valise with pleasing regularity. His beautiful (?) sister in the meanwhile awaited his return and entertained him
pleasantly after his daily labors were completed. Nothing occurred to check the doctor's steady and onward roll to affluence and riches, and on the Fourth his thrilling tones could be heard on the
fair grounds as he enlightened his listeners on the only sure and safe road
to health and longevity, ever and anon smiling serenely as the familiar click of the half dollar told him that

ANOTHER VICTIM
had made a deposit. Yesterday morning, however, a cloud appeared upon
the doctor's horizon. The cloud was not
"at first not more than the size of a hand."

Not much. It was a full blown cloud, weighing about 125 pounds,
and was enveloped in a black alpaca dress and a crape veil. The cloud was of the variety not found in meteorological nomenclature, but was of the Mrs. E. A. Smith variety, which is the short of the Crawfordville E. A. Smithson, and the long of Dr. Ball. Mrs. Smith
was in search of her recalcitrant husband

DEAD CHILD IN HER ARMS,
left her without means or sustenance.
The sister above mentioned is
merely a sister, as it were, and according to Mrs. S.'s statement the pseudo doctor picked her out of one of the lowest dives in Terre Haute. There is certainly nothing in her appearance which would attract the admiration of any sensible man, and if the doctor (?) found any attractions there they
must certainly be hidden.

Upon her arrival Mrs. Smith sought
the aid of the city marshal and the
prosecuting attorney to file an affidavit against Mr. Ball alias Smithson
alias Smith for desertion.
Prosecutor Hench could not see it that way. She then sought a justice to file an affidavit herself, but that
also was a failure. In the meantime
to have her arrested and put under
bonds for surety of the peace.

The papers, however, were not
served. Finding all efforts vain to reach her husband by means of the
law, she tried another method, and dispatched Deputy Guttermuth with a note, to interview the gentleman.
This scheme was a success as far as it
went, but it only went

FIVE DOLLARS WORTH.
The doctor gave Ben five dollars to buy Mrs. Smith a ticket for Chicago,
and said that would be the entire and
total extent of his generosity. He said
Mrs. Smith had disgraced him, that she had left him and gone into a waiter's saloon in Indianapolis and had fired beer and other refreshments among the boys, and that he could never see her nor do anything
for her again.

A SENTINEL reporter last evening
interviewed Mrs. Smith, when the following conversation took place:
"Have you seen your husband?"
"Yes, I have seen him, and I hope
for the last time."

"What did he have to say?"
"Well, he finally came to me, and
we walked up the street. He abused
me all the way, and we got around the corner--I don't know the name of the
street--where no one was looking, and
he choked me and pinched me until
my sides are all black and blue, and

"NEVER BOTHER HIM AGAIN."
"I raised my parasol to hit him, but I did not strike."

"Will you go to Chicago, to-night?"
"I think I shall; I think it is best."
"He said you were a disreputable
woman, or that you led a disreputable
life? Is that a fact?"

"No sir! it is not. I acknowledge that I was in a saloon in Indianapolis,
but I was earning an honest living,
which I had to do to live at all."

"Will you ever bother him again?"
"I? No, never. I buried him where I buried my little babe. He is dead to me henceforth. I can live and prosper under it, but he will and the bitter end soon enough. Mark my words, that man will yet inside of one year

come to me on his two hended knees
and beg of me for a drink of water, but I will have none for him. Mark
it, I say before one year."

This was almost too tragic for the reporter and
TEARS FILLED HIS EYES
as he thought of the pitiful spectacle
of a man begging for a drink of water when whiskey is only 40 cents a gallon and beer retails at two glasses for five cents. The reporter recovered far enough to inquire "Is he a doctor?"

"He! no. He don't know any more about medicine than I do."
"How were you treated by the officers here?"
"By some, very well. If this man (Guttermuth), and the young man (Falkner) and the man they call captain (Diehl) had been my own brothers they could not have treated me
any better. But the prosecutor and
justice some how didn't seem to care
much about it, and I will not bother
these men anymore."

There may be another phase in the story which the reporter did not get
"onto."
Since writing the above the parties
have had a new deal. Mrs. Smith did not go to Chicago last night, but she
went to the mayor's court this morning and filed an affidavit against the
doctor for assault and battery as above described. Her statement was merely a corroboration of the story as related.
The doctor said she was not his wife, but a woman who was following him for blackmail. He says he had her imprisoned at Milwaukee a year ago.
He said he was willing to pay for a dispatch to Galveston, Tex., where she claimed to have married him, and
by it disprove her statement.

The doctor got considerably "rattled," and his statement wouldn't hold
water; he was fined $1 and costs,
which he paid and immediately had
Mrs. Smith arrested for provoke. Her trial was held by Justice Ryan, and

Details of Israel Young's Accident at Toledo.

The Funeral at that City Yesterday Afternoon.

The Toledo Commercial of Saturday
gives the full details of the death of Israel P. Young, switchman in the
yards at that place. The accident was
a most shocking one, the body being
horribly mangled, and yet the unfortunate man lived about ten or fifteen minutes after being run over. No one knows exactly how the accident occurred. Young was standing on the rear end of a train from which he had just cut loose a car. He gave the
engineer reversed the engine, and it is probable that the sudden stopping and
jolting of the train threw Young off
his balance, and he fell, two cars and

The Commercial says: "Both legs
were crushed and broken, and the right arm was also crushed. The face
was badly scratched, and there were
who helped get the body out from under the cars say that he lived but a few minutes, but during that time he
must have suffered fearfully."

He had been to work in the yard
about six months, and was supposed
to know his business.

The coroner's verdict was accidental death. No blame to be attached to any one.
Yesterday morning S. B. Sweet,
John Wells, Chas. Buck, James Kee-
gan, Chas. Lape, James Goodrich, George Heberston, John Humphrey and Casper Smith went to Toledo and attended the funeral, which was held
way Methodist Episcopal Church, un-
Humphrey, Casper Smith and Len
Thomas of the Wayne lodge were
among the pall bearers, the other three being members of the Toledo lodge No. 144. The Fort Wayne men who attended the funeral returned home at 8.35 last evening.

The Standard Club.

Yesterday afternoon a number of
leading Jewish citizens met and organized a club for the purposes of social intercourse, literary entertainments, lectures, etc., etc. The club will be known as the Standard Club,
and starts out with thirty-five members. Rooms have been rented in Foster Brothers new block, which will be fitted out in fine style. The officers are as follows:
President--L. Laury.
Vice President--H. Goldsmith.
Secretary--L. Heyman.
Treasurer--L. Freiburger.

Robert Hervey, the prisoner who
assaulted Dick Meyer last Saturday,
was placed in solitary confinement.
Hervey thought he would get even, so
he filled the lock with paper, etc., so
that the door could not be unlocked.
The sheriff was obliged to break the
lock in order to get him out of his cell.
He has not yet had his preliminary
examination.

The social to be given by the Third Street M. E. Church will be held next
Cream Restaurant, on Wells street.
All are cordially invited.

Mr. McGonagle, publisher and editor of the Decatur Democrat, who not long ago came here to consult Dr.
Voss Moschizker, has in his paper of July 4th the following notice:
"Having been suffering severely for several weeks with a pain in the head,
we this week called on Dr. Von Moschizker, the noted specialist of Philadelphia, who is now stopping in Fort Wayne. We have so far received considerable benefit from his treatment, and have every reason to believe
cure."
